

CMTF International Conference
“We are bound where mariner has not yet dared to go”
Gianfranco Cecchin’s eyes 10 years after

Milan, Italy, 4-5 October 2014 Sala PIME – Via Mosè Bianchi No. 94

the aim of the conference is to connect the roots of Cecchin’s views with possible future perspectives, through an exploration of present issues and experiences in the field of the systemic practices.

Robin Routledge, Allan Wade

“Small Acts of Living: The Milan Systemic Heart of Response-Based Practice”

Robin Routledge and Allan Wade will present, talk, dialogue and interact with the audience, invited to participate actively as “observing team”

Laura Fruggeri

“irreverence: a prescription? a provocation? a methodological principle?”

a reflection on one of the most famous landmarks in the Cecchin’s style

Umberta Telfner

“Gianfranco Cecchin: a Bopper in Training and Therapy” - comments and reflections on a footage with excerpts from Cecchin’s interviews and talks

Massimo Schinco

“A conversation between Gianfranco Cecchin and Luigi Boscolo about time and change”

comments on a footage in the spirit of the Conference

The Directors of the Italian Schools of the CMTF

will talk with the public on their multi-year experience of collaboration and friendship with Gianfranco Cecchin

The Students of the Italian Schools of the CMTF will present their works on specific issues connected with Gianfranco Cecchin's views

Keep in touch with us on our Facebook page and website www.cmtf.it

Please remember that the participation to the conference is free upon registration

Go to registration form at <http://www.cmtf.it/i-fondatori/gianfranco-cecchins-eyes-10-years-after/734-2/>

For information on the hotel accommodation in Milan please contact: booking.milano@melia.com